

MODERN MOTION DANCE SCHOOL

Painting Teacher Position Description

The Painting Teachers work closely with our students to deliver high quality experiences that boost confidence and nurture creativity. In this role, the Painting Teachers will work to dazzle newcomers and returning students, cultivate a positive atmosphere, and provide a pathway to aspiring artists to reach their full potential.

This might be the role for you if:

- You LOVE children and want to pass on your passion for art
- You like to occasionally get your hands dirty and help keep our studio in tip top shape
- You are excited and willing to learn new ideas and teaching methods
- You embrace and promote our mission
- You delight in the successes of others
- You can work in a fast-paced and noisy workplace
- You've a go-getter, self-starter
- You are comfortable learning and implementing our studio curriculum
- You can commit to prepping for classes, providing learning tools, and adapt to different learning styles to promote an inclusive learning environment
- You want a pivotal role in an organization and making a positive impact on children and youth
- You are fun and friendly and like pitching in

This is not the role for you if:

- You're looking for short-term, something quick and easy, we're looking for someone to stay with us for the long haul to see the results of the work being implemented
- You don't like being stretched out of your comfort zone
- You are a procrastinator and make excuses for not getting work done
- You only want to work with advanced students
- You do not like to follow a set curriculum for your classes
- You don't have the time to prep for for classes at home, attend staff meetings, or trainings outside of regularly scheduled classes, or arrive early before class
- You prefer to shout or use tougher coaching techniques when teaching

Qualifications

The candidate must:

- have at least three years of experience painting using various techniques and materials
- dress appropriately for lessons and studio activities
- possess a minimum of either 2 years experience as an artist, a degree in art, college credits in art, and/or extensive training in art
- be able to teach the proper terminology for art as well as basic art history
